March 29, 1974
Washington, D.C.

Since January 6, 1974, when the first meeting of the Washington, D.C. Revolutionary Union (D.C.R.U.) was held at Asia Books and Periodicals, 1826 Columbia Road, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), DAVID MATTHEWS from the Baltimore RU has been attempting to organize the DCRU into political study sessions-meetings. MATTHEWS succeeded in <sup>est-</sup>ablishing these meetings officially on Sunday, February 24, 1974, and nine prospective members attended subsequent meetings <sup>which</sup> were held on February 27, 1974, March 3, 1974, March 7, 1974, March 10, 1974 March 17, 1974, and March 21, 1974.

MATTHEWS spent a majority of the time at these meetings detailing areas of study, at which time, he added, after these study sessions are completed, DCRU will evolve into the official RU chapter for Washington, D.C. No date was set for the completion of these study sessions.

On 2/24/74, the study session involved the theory of dialectics associated with Marxist-Leninist philosophy. MATTHEWS also brought up the need for security measures against the police in Washington, D.C. who will probably "bug" the meeting room, so MATTHEWS suggested different locations for each meeting.

On 2/27/74 MATTHEWS discussed the formation of a newspaper, after study sessions were terminated, to replace the newspaper, the Spark, formerly out of Montgomery County. MATTHEWS would keep the name of the Spark, and he would like it to become a working class paper like Baltimore RU's "On The Line". D.C. RU would help publish and distribute the Spark. The paper will follow the RU line, but it will not be billed as an RU paper.

On the March 3, 1974 meeting, MATTHEWS described the type of membership in the RU. First, open-all membership where everyone knows the individual is an RU member; closed-membership where individuals know only other RU members; and secret membership, an individual only is known to certain RU members; such a member would be people in the military, Communist Party, and those who have security clearances.

On March 7, 1974, MATTHEWS discussed the idea of a future penetration of government and vital industries so when the revolution comes, the RU could cripple both the government and industry.

On the March 10, 1974 MATTHEWS discussed a United Front among the working class (proletariat) against imperialism. The RU plans to lead this United Front to a dictatorship of the proletariat where workers rule. The five spearheads or points of unity in the United Front are: 1) the struggle for National liberation (blacks) 2) the struggle against imperialist aggression 3) struggle against facism 4) struggle against women oppression 5) and unite the prolitariat.

On the March 17, 1974 meeting, MATTHEWS stated as soon as DCRU members finish their study session, he would like them to begin work in factories, uniting the workers.

On the March 21, 1974 meeting, MATTHEWS spoke of forming an Attica Brigade (AB) chapter at American University, WDC after study sessions were over, presently, there is no AB chapter at American U. Also within a year, RU nationally, will be forming a party.

The following listed persons attended the above mentioned meetings:

FOIA (b) (6)

DEAN ALEXANDER MURVILLE - 3710 Garfield St., N.W., WDC - described as a white/male, 5'10", 170 lbs., blond hair, wire rim glasses, DOB [REDACTED] Soc. CINDY RAY - lives near 18th and T Sts. N.W., WDC. Described as a white/female, 5'6", 130 lbs. Claims to be from Pittsburgh, Penna. RAY has a 5 year daughter, LUCHA, the offspring of a black father, and RAY tries to raise the child as a black child. The child's father was a member of the Black Panther Party, (BPP) and is now a member of the Hedridge Cleaver faction of the BPP.

THOMAS C. RYAN, 1301 South Taylor Square "A", Arlington, Virginia. White/male.

TED FALK - 4206 Knox Road, B-3, College Park, Maryland; white/male

SUE READING - Residing in Takoma Park. Employed at the National Education Association (NEA), WDC.

There is currently two cliques in this group. One consisting of TED FALK, SUE READING, CRAIG SIMPSON, TOM RYAN, and ALEX AJAY; they support the RU line; however the others, JANE GOLDWEBER, LAURA BIGMAN and CINDY RAY support the position that besides raising the political consciousness of the working masses (RU line) they would like to organize other groups such as truckers, women, and a more united front with the Blacks. If the future study sessions do not iron out these differences, then possibly, the three women, CINDY, LAURA, and JANE may quit and join YAWF eventually blending in October League.

REVOLUTIONARY UNION

Revolutionary Union (RU) was founded in early 1968 and is a militant, semi-clandestine organization. Its objectives, as set out in its publication are the development of a united front against imperialism, the fostering of revolutionary working-class unity, and leadership in struggle and the formation of a Communist Party based on Marxism-Leninism-MAO-Tse-tung thought leading to the overthrow of the U.S. Government by force and violence.

On March 28, 1974, first source, who has provided reliable information in the past advised as follows:

Since the first meeting was held of the Washington, D.C. RU (DCRU) on January 6, 1974, David Matthews, from the Baltimore RU has been attempting to organize the DCRU into political study sessions.

A second source, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised on December 10, 1973, that David Lee Matthews has been involved in radical activity in the Baltimore area for many years, and is the moving force behind the RU in Baltimore.

Matthews successfully re-established these study sessions on Sunday, February 24, 1974, and six subsequent meetings followed, sometimes meeting on Thursday evenings, the last study session held on March 21, 1974. Each of these study sessions had a major theme which Matthews was trying to put across to the prospective members.

According to first source, Matthews spoke of the following themes to the members of the DCRU:

Matthews brought up the need for security measures against the Police in Washington, D.C. (WDC) by encouraging different locations for each meeting, such as members homes. He also encouraged the need for the formation of a newspaper. Matthews would like to take the newspaper called "The Spark", out of Montgomery County and make it into a working class paper like Baltimore RU's "On the Line". "The Spark" will follow the RU line, but it will not be billed as an RU paper. The DCRU would be responsible for publishing and distributing the newspaper.

Matthews described the different types of membership in the RU. First, open, where everyone both inside and outside the RU knows the individual is an RU member. Second, closed, where the RU member is known only to other RU members, and lastly, secret, an individual known only to certain RU members. An example of the secret type of membership would be RU members operating in the military, Communist Party, and those who have security clearances.

Matthews discussed the idea of a future penetration by DCRU members into government and vital industries, but initially he would like these members to obtain work in factories and unite the workers. Matthews feels by uniting the workers the RU has accomplished one of the five spearheads for the United Front. The other four are giving support to blacks in their struggle, the struggle against imperialist aggression, struggle against fascism, and the struggle against women oppression.

Matthews would like the formation of an Attica Brigade (AB) Chapter at American University, WDC. Matthews also predicted within the year, RU, nationally, will be forming a party.

The AB is a student based organization founded in New York City in the Fall of 1971. The AB considers itself to be an anti-imperialist organization which views "U.S. imperialism as the main enemy of the people of the world". The RU has significantly infiltrated the AB and plays a major role in the AB policies, decision, and activities.

Spark is an underground newspaper published at Takoma Park, Maryland.

First source advised Matthews stated that none of the prospective DCRU members could be involved in any activity until they have completed their study sessions. Alex Ajay - 1327 Madison Street, N.W., WDC, employed by Asia Book and Periodicals, 1826 Columbia Road, N.W., WDC.

According to an article in "The Eagle", campus newspaper for American University (AU), WDC, of May 22, 1970, Alex Ajay led a series of demonstrations during the preceding week against use of AU facilities by AJUST (an AU program sponsored by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the Department of Justice). According to the newspaper account, several sit-ins were staged and there was some vandalism.

Laura Bigman - lives near Third and Gallitan Street, N.W., WDC.

Cindy Ray - lives near 18th and T Street, N.W., WDC.

RUCHELL REY is a male negro who is married to CINDY REY, and is the member of the Eldridge Cleaver faction of the Black Panther Party.

CRAIG GORDON SIMPSON current address is 5714 16th Avenue, apt. 304, Chillum, Maryland 20783, phone number 559-2962. SIMPSON is described as a W/M, 5'2, 165 pounds, date of birth [REDACTED] and holds Maryland drivers license S 512-125-285-605.

LAURA BIGMAN currently resides at 250 Farragut Square, WDC.

JANE GOLDMANTER currently resides with a DIANE I. DALTON, 1308 Chillum Road, Hyattsville, Maryland, phone number 559-5315.

Meeting was held at the residence of ALEX AJAY on 4/7/74, 1327 Madison Street, NW, WDC. DAVID MATTHEWS chaired this meeting and revealed at a recent National Central Committee (NCC) meeting of the RU that a change had been made in the RU's goals. The RU now views the national question (blacks, Chicanos, Indians,) as no longer being primary. The changes in the US, according to the RU are now being made by working class people black and white. This change in position, according to MATTHEWS, cost the RU two allies, The Black Workers Congress, and the Puerto Rican Socialist Party. MATTHEWS added that the new principal task for the RU is to build a Communist Party in the US. The party building will take from 1 to 1½ years, and it will result in a party congress to which all honest forces (people and/or groups who are communists and agree with RU) will be invited to attend. MATTHEWS summed up the change of line by saying that while third world (national) struggles have been declining for the last three years, workers struggles are on the up swing; so these workers need a communist party to provide them with guidance. RU believes that the revolution against the US must come from a communist led army of workers, and establishing the party is the first step.

MATTHEWS announced that political study sessions for this group are now formally over, and the group will be known as the DCRU collective. Since LAURA BIGMAN, CINDY REY, and JANE GOLDMANTER are not sure of joining this collective, he made them "cadres in training", and designated all new members to be named as such. MATTHEWS designated SUE BEATING, CRAIG SIMPSON, ALEX AJAY, and JIM REY as closed members of this collective, and added it would be up to the four closed members to choose an open member from this group, to represent the collective.

MATTHEWS described the governing structure within this collective as follows:

CRAIG SIDTRON, leader of this collective, and will be the organizer for the newspaper which will be titled "On the Move".

ALEX AJAY in charge of the Political Study Sessions for the "cadres in training" (this position is second in command.) Will attempt to form an AFRICA BRIGADE at American University.

SUE READING- will assist SIDTRON in the formation of "On the Move".

TED FAIX - military liason. RU is attempting to penetrate VVAN/WSO and the Military Law Project and FAIX has associations with both groups.

MATTHEWS LISTED the following demonstrations:

4/27/74- Teachach Nixon Demonstration, Washington, D.C. Matthews suspects a large demonstration since a lot of groups will be attending.

5/1/74-- DCRU is planning a Day Day Demonstration, no location type of activity or time has been decided on yet.

5/6/74-- DCRU is planning to participate in African Liberation Day(ALD) in Washington, D.C. ALD is an annual event sponsored by African Liberation Support Committee(ALSC).

DCRU meeting was held at the University of Maryland, room 1129, at the Student Union, College Park, Md on 6/11/74. The major issue discussed was the necessity to get the newspaper "on the Move" out on time; however, due to lateness of many of the articles written, the newspaper for July and August, may be late getting out.

DCRU meeting scheduled for 6/18/74 was cancelled because they were running far behind on the newspaper, and needed to devote more time to it.

DCRU meeting was held again at the University of Maryland, room 1129, at the Student Union, College Park, Md on 7/9/74. An analyzation of the recent VVAW/MSO July fourth demonstration was discussed, and it was determined that the DCRU had not made enough effort to support the Demo, but the experience was worthwhile. There was criticism because the newspaper "On the Move" had not been printed in time for the Demo.

A discussion was held concerning the Anti-Imperialist Committee which would hold their first meeting on 7/14/74 on the second floor of the Dupont Building in WDC. This Anti-Imperialist Committee is a Coalition of the DCRU, Palestine Liberation Organization, Ethiopian Student Association, and the Iranian Student Association. ALICE ALAY and SUE READING were chosen as the DCRU's representatives.

A theoretical discussion was held on the "RED PAPERS #6, a new exclusive book published by National RU in June, 1974, the major theme being building a new national RU party.

It is to be noted at this meeting that JANE GOLDWATER is now considered a DCRU member.

DCRU meeting was held at the University of Maryland, room 1129, at the student union, College Park, Maryland on 7/16/74. CRAIG SIMPSON stated that ROBERT AVAKIAN, one of the leaders of Chicago National RU would be coming to the district on 8/6 through 8/8 '74. SIMPSON added he was not sure if the district meant the Eastern district at Philadelphia or if he would attempt to come to Baltimore. The purpose of AVAKIAN's visit would be to organize the national party.

JANE GOLDWEBER is the organizer of the Trailways Strike Committee in Washington, D.C., and she is attempting to join forces with HERB QUINN president of the local 1199 which is on strike. However, she does not believe this will come about due to QUINN's leanings toward October League.

The newspaper "On the Move" second edition should be coming out in the near future.

Advance party for AVAKIAN met on 8/4/74 at CRAIG SIMPSON'S residence 5716 Chillum Ave. apt. 304, Chillum, Maryland. Those attended were the following:

The following itinerary was set out for AVAKIAN on 8/5/74 as discussed in above meeting at SIMPSON'S:

2:00 PM AVAKIAN would meet with the IRANIAN and ETHIOPIAN STUDENT ASSOCIATIONS at the Asia Book Store, Columbia Road, NW, WDC

3:30 PM AVAKIAN would meet with YOUTH ORGANIZED FOR BLACK UNITY (YOBUN), and the AFRICAN LIBERATION SUPPORT COMMITTEE (ALSC).

It was decided at this meeting that time limitations would prevent a meet with VVAN/W.O.

AVAKIAN arrived in WDC late evening 8/4/74, and met with the above mentioned groups on 8/5/74. It appeared that the Iranian, Ethiopian, YOBUN and ALSC were receptive to the idea of associating with RU when the RU builds the party, but a lot more future discussions would be necessary.

A dinner was held at SIMPSON'S the evening of 8/5/74 for AVAKIAN, and the following people attended:

It is to be noted that BARRY GREENBERG and MARY GREENBERG were not

BOB AVAKIAN spoke at American University to an audience of approximately 90 people for 2 hours beginning at 8:20 pm and ending at 10:10 pm. His speech centered around the 'bad' papers #6 which he stated now was the time for the revolution because the masses have no faith in the government. AVAKIAN predicted an armed peoples revolt would consist of a armed massed single stage revolution led by Communists with the RU in the lead. AVAKIAN criticized the OCTOBER LEAGUE for being undependable, and not following the MARXIST-LENINIST-MAOIST line correctly. He criticized the COMMUNIST LEAGUE for not understanding the national question, and tending to get away from the masses.
Lastly, AVAKIAN stated the reason the RU is now ready to build the party because they are associating themselves with the masses in the factories.

After the speech was over AVAKIAN left for Baltimore to stay with

The July 2, 1974, meeting of the Washington, D.C. Revolutionary Union, was held from 7:00 until 10:00 p.m., in Room 1129, of the University of Maryland (U of M), Student Union Building, College Park, Maryland. CRAIG SIMPSON chaired the meeting and the agenda included: A discussion of dialectics, an analysis of the "On the Move" newspaper, and the Vietnam Veterans Against the War/Winter Soldier Organization demonstration currently being held in Washington, D.C.

Before the meeting began, SUE READING told CRAIG SIMPSON that HARRY (Last Name Unknown), the Negro male she had been living with, was arrested for cashing a stolen check. HARRY (Last Name Unknown) is a heroin addict and he was released to RAP (Regional Addiction Program), Washington, D.C. READING did not seem upset that HARRY had been arrested and she mentioned that perhaps RAP could straighten him out.

JANE GOLDWEBER and ALEX AJAY led a discussion on dialectics, which is the Marxian process of change through the conflict of opposing forces. This theoretical approach to problem solving took about one hour, however, it included an analysis of the "On the Move" newspaper. CRAIG SIMPSON stated that the major reason that the second edition of "On the Move" has not appeared is that their electric typewriter is broken. JANE GOLDWEBER and SUE READING disagreed, stating that they thought the paper had not appeared because the D.C. Revolutionary Union was involved in a political disagreement with "On the Move's" editor, LAURA BIGMAN, (a former D.C. Revolutionary Union member). BIGMAN's position is that "On the Move" should be a Marxist-Leninist newspaper for workers, while the Washington, D.C. Revolutionary Union wants the paper to remain an anti-imperialist workers' newspaper. This disagreement apparently manifests itself with some articles being re-written or returned to the contributors to "correct the political line." The problem, according to GOLDWEBER, READING and SIMPSON, is not over the need for a Communist led workers revolt, but over the methods for organizing the workers. SUE READING told the D.C. Revolutionary Union that no new members or interested persons have joined the "On the Move" staff. The D.C. Revolutionary Union will continue to discuss "On the Move" as no decision was reached on what should be done to correct the problem.

The July 1-4, 1974 Vietnam Veterans Against the War/Winter Soldier Organization demonstration, which is being held in Washington, D.C., was briefly discussed by CRAIG SIMPSON and TED FALK. SIMPSON stated that he had been at the VVAW/WSO encampment on July 1, 1974, and the police had massed as if to attack, but no confrontation occurred. The encampment is located in Lafayette Park, Washington, D.C. but the permit does not allow sleeping on the site. SIMPSON stated that the VVAW/WSO demonstrators consisted of a large number of Revolutionary Union members. The Revolutionary Union has targeted the July 4, 1974 rally as a project for building the Veterans' movement. FALK stated that the local chapter of VVAW/WSO had been leafletting and building the demonstration so at least 1,000 people are expected.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

August 30, 1974

On August 5, 1974, there was a dinner held by the Revolutionary Union (RU) before a speech by the RU National Central Committee (NCC) chairman BOB AVAKIAN. The dinner was held at CRAIG SIMPSON's apartment, 5714 16th Avenue, #304, Chillum, Maryland, and the speech was given at American University, Ward Circle Building, Ward I, Washington, D. C. (WDC).

The RU's purpose in holding the August 5 dinner was to allow certain individuals a chance to talk with BOB AVAKIAN about building a new communist party. KATHY SMITH (W/F, 5'5", 140, about 25 years) stated she represented NAM (New American Movement) and she presented a number of questions of the difference between NAM and RU. SMITH claimed that NAM was a socialist mass type party and explained that she had attended the July 11-14, 1974 NAM national convention, Lexington, Kentucky. HAKIM (LNU) (N/M, 6'2", 180 pounds, afro, full beard, reddish-brown complexion) asked questions concerning the racial makeup of RU, and its policies on black people. BOB AVAKIAN answered by saying that he would not reveal even the percentage of "third world" people in RU but stated that RU is attracting more third world people.

FRED SOLLOWAY stated he was a member of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) working on the Grand Jury investigation project of NLG. SOLLOWAY asked a few questions about RU's policy on building a party.

After the dinner ended at approximately 7:30 p.m., all the people at the dinner, except KATHY SMITH, HAKIM, And a W/M went to hear BOB AVAKIAN's speech.

The BOB AVAKIAN speech was given in Ward I, Ward Circle Building, American University, WDC, from 8:00 to 10:50 p.m. The subject of the address was the "Road to a Revolutionary Communist Party", which was basically a rehash of the RU's booklet Red Papers 6. A summary of the speech's main topics is as follows:

This country needs a single stage revolution led by a Communist Vanguard Party. This revolution will consist of armed workers (led by the RU Communist Party) seizing state power and setting up a dictatorship of the proletariat. This classless society will have to be established by a violent overthrow of our current government since the U. S. ruling class will not relinquish their power. AVAKIAN stated that RU believes that the Revolution is not imminent but the need for a Communist Party is an immediate necessity. RU believes that this New Communist Party can be established at this time since the proletariat is now militant and ready for this party.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

AVAKIAN criticized the Communist Party of the United States of America (CPUSA), which RU claims has sold out the workers movement. AVAKIAN criticized two Maoist groups, the October League (OL) and the Communist League (CL) for retarding the development of the new Communist Party. OL was using a "left error" in organizing since they "subverted" (down played) their politics in organizing workers. The Communist League (CL) AVAKIAN claimed was using a "right error" since CL uses an incorrect line on the national question (Blacks, Chicanos, etc.). This CL revisionism is much more dangerous than OL's line as more potential communists are being misled.

AVAKIAN cited the RU's "line" as being correct in both theory and practice although it still is not perfect. The RU line has been applied in RU's mass work for over two years according to AVAKIAN so it now appears that the RU's efforts should be directed to establishing a Communist Party. AVAKIAN stated that RU believes that Blacks in the U. S. are a nation but a proletarian nation of a new type. The RU's position is that while Blacks suffer police repression, discrimination, job insecurity, racism, etc., Blacks should not secede and form a new Black nation in the South. CL believes that Blacks and some whites will form a New Black nation in the South. RU wants the Blacks to join with the white workers to form a multinational Communist Party.

AVAKIAN answered a number of questions following the speech:

A W/M asked about the need for violence to overthrow the government. AVAKIAN answered by saying that he would not say "anything directly on that in front of this audience." AVAKIAN did state that RU believes in the need for a single stage revolution by an armed proletariat. He also stated that people should have arms for "self-defense."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

PHIL HILL asked why NAM or a social democratic party was opposed so heavily by RU and then he stated that the NAM versus RU line would break up groups like VVAW/WSO. AVAKIAN stated that NAM was reformist not revolutionary and that VVAW/WSO would benefit from this in the long run.

AVAKIAN answered a question about RU from a W/F who accused the organization of being male dominated and sexist. The woman stated that she favored the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) to the Constitution. AVAKIAN answered the question by saying RU had women in the highest leadership levels so it was not male dominated. AVAKIAN cited the lack of real reform as the reason RU opposes the ERA in that women lose all the protective rights that "women workers have fought for and won."

A Black man asked about the number of Blacks in RUN, and in RU leadership. AVAKIAN gave the same reply to the Black male as he had given to HAKIO at the dinner earlier.

Security at the speech consisted of a pat down search by RU members of all the persons attending the speech. All bags, cases, and handbags were searched by RU members and a dollar donation to "pay expenses was requested." No weapons were observed nor were any weapons found. A blackjack was observed in SIMPSON's living room which was near a blue suitcase during the pre speech dinner.

August 30, 1974

On August 4, 1974, there was a Revolutionary Union (RU) meeting at CRAIG SIMPSON's apartment, 5714 16th Avenue, #304, Chillum, Maryland, which began at approximately 10:00 p.m. and ended at 12:05 a.m. The primary reason for this RU meeting was to handle arrangements for a speech by BOB AVAKIAN. AVAKIAN is the chairman of the RU National Central Committee and he is to speak on the need to build a new Communist Party.

AVAKIAN was scheduled to fly into Washington's National Airport on August 5, 1974 at 8:00 a.m. along with DEBBIE LNU (a National Central Committee member from New York City), the "Old Man" (thought to be LEIBEL BERGMAN) and three other people.

LEE LNU (W/M, 5'8", 155 pounds, brown hair, blue eyes, approximately 26 years old) and SHELIA LNU (W/F, 5'4", 115 pounds, short brown hair, wire-rim glasses, boyish face, about 26 years of age) attended the August 4, 1974 meeting. LEE and CHRIS are the advance people who make the necessary arrangements for the AVAKIAN speeches. LEE mentioned that he was a printer in New York, and he also stated he was the RU representative at the May Day 1971 demonstration in Washington, D. C. SHELIA of Boston, Massachusetts, stated she worked with "On the Line" in New Hampshire, (the "On the Line" is a different OTL than the RU paper in Baltimore which has the same name.) Both subjects claimed that they had driven in from Boston via New York on August 4, 1974.

The planning session consisted of who would pick up AVAKIAN, which groups would have separate meetings with the RU people accompanying AVAKIAN, security and sleeping arrangements.

ALEX AJAY told LEE that YOBU (Youth Organization for Black Unity) and ALSC (African Liberation Support Committee) would be at one meeting, the Iranian Student Union and the Ethiopian Student Association at another meeting. The YOBU-ALSC meeting is to be held at 3:30 p.m. in a house near the Asia Books and Periodicals, 1826 Columbia Road, Washington, D. C. The ISU-ESA meeting will be at 2:00 p.m. in the Asia Books rear office.

CRAIG SIMPSON stated that he had been working on a meeting with the Washington Chapter of Vietnam Veterans Against The War/Winter Soldier Organization (VVAW/WSO); however, he would have to check with TERRY (SELZER) for a time and place. SIMPSON further related that he was going to hold a chili dinner at his residence on August 5, 1974 and RU members and invited guests are welcomed.

Security was stressed by LEE LNU who stated that the security force should have weapons like a base ball bat, a blackjack, etc. SIMPSON stated he would bring a heavy wrench, MATTHEWS mentioned having a roll of nickels in a fist as a weapon. MATHEWS then stated that the Washington DCRU and the Baltimore RU should obtain nunchocks. Nunchocks are two sticks about 1 inch thick which are held together by a length of rope or chain.

LEE stated that the security people will frisk everyone entering as a precaution. He seemed concerned that another leftist group or the police would attack the meeting. The two new left groups mentioned were NCLC (National Caucus of Labor Committees ) and YAWF (Youth Against War and Fascism); however, TED FALK discounted any problems.

LEE stated that DCRU should have people in the audience who should raise favorable RU questions after an RU question is asked. MATTHEWS stated that Baltimore RU people would do this as well as help with the security work.

After the speech, MATTHEWS is to bring the RU people to Baltimore where the tentative plans are to have them spend August 5 and 6, 1974.

The following was learned from DAVE MATTHEWS:

MAXINE DASHKOFF, a Baltimore RU member, was fired from her job at Eastern Products, Columbia, Maryland, because she led a walkout after JEFF (BIGELOW) a YAWF member was fired. MATTHEWS stated that GREG DUNKEL and other Washington, D. C. YAWF members have moved to Baltimore along with the entire Wilmington, Delaware YAWF chapter. The reason he gave for the YAWF people coming to Baltimore is to recruit workers into YAWF.

LEE passed a copy of "Prarie Fire", a book by the Weather underground, which is listed as being printed by:

Dragon Fire Printing Collective. LEE claimed he knew where the book was printed indicating it was produced in New York.

DAVE MATTHEWS was overheard telling LEE that the August 6, 1974 meeting in Baltimore on forming a Bureau would be held in the mid afternoon. It is believed that this Bureau is a news Bureau for RU's Revolution newspaper as it is supposed to become a bimonthly paper. MATTHEWS stated that people from the Baltimore RU newspaper "On The Line" along with a person from the Black Workers Congress would attend the meeting.

The following persons attended the meeting:

The attached copy of Revolution was obtained and on page 5 it lists the AVAKIAN speech schedule. LEE stated that AVAKIAN has been on a speaking tour since June 1. It was indicated that he spoke in the West and Midwest during June, 1974.

A meeting of the Revolutionary Student Brigade (RSB) was held at the student union, room 1151, University of Maryland, 7:00 PM, 9/27/74. ALAN JAY chaired this meeting, and again discussed the same items as he did on the 9/12/74 meeting. ALAN gave a short speech on the history of the RSB, and emphasized that leaflets should be distributed by this group on issues relevant to U. of Maryland students, such as amnesty, pardoning of NIAW, high tuition for out of state students, etc. ALAN then requested of those in attendance to make any suggestions as to what the RSB could get into on campus. A suggestion was made to establish a "private" radio station on campus on idea that JIMMY lived, but the majority of the group indicated that nothing would be done.
